

Back room

By Dineth

Equal second prize: 2023 Marysville Writing competition. Primary section

AAAAHHHHHH!!! Run! The forest was on fire and there was a red eyed creature chasing me!!! It was trying to kill me, AAAAHHH. I started to faint. When I woke up, I found myself in an abandoned back room. I heard a strange noise, and I followed it. I found a backroom monster, now I had two things to worry about: The backroom monster and the red eyed creature. I made some armour and shot a nuclear explosion. It exploded the whole area and I got yeeted away. I landed on a tree with daggers. This was officially the worst day of my life. Surrounded by crocodiles and alligators, I started to parkour out of there. I used another nuke and I blasted out of there!!! I found myself in a pool party!!!