Winning entries may not necessarily be published.

Judges will be appointed by the Marysville BookNest Writing Competition Committee. The judges' decision will be final and binding, and no correspondence will be entered into with respect to individual entries, entrants and results.

The Marysville BookNest will not be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever (including but not limited to direct or consequential loss) or any personal injury suffered or sustained in connection with the competition or the making of awards except for any liability that cannot be excluded by law.

Winner Announcement & Notification

The prize winners will be publicly announced at Marysville after a presentation ceremony to be held in the first week of November, 2023.

The prize winner(s) will be notified about two weeks prior to that by via email or phone. If a prize winner cannot be contacted over a period of 7 days, the prize may be withdrawn and awarded to another entry.

Prize winners' names will be published on the Marysville BookNest website, other websites, and may also be published in social media and in printed periodicals published in Murrindindi and elsewhere.

Prize winners will be given the opportunity to read their work at a presentation ceremony or other event. Winners may elect to have their work read by a nominated alternative or a member of the BookNest Committee.

The Marysville BookNest Writing Competition Committee reserves the right to request proof of identity, proof of residency and proof of entry validity, to confirm eligibility. Proof of identification, residency and entry considered suitable for verification is at the absolute discretion of the Marysville BookNest Writing Competition Committee. In the event that the eligibility of a prize winner cannot established the Marysville BookNest Writing Competition Committee may withdraw the prize in whole and no substitute prize will be offered.

Entrants that do not win prizes will not be notified. No feedback on any entry will be provided.

Privacy

1. Where a prize-winning entry is published, the author's name and area of residence (or school if applicable) may also be published by way of accreditation unless the author or the author's parent or guardian advises in writing that he/she or they do not wish to have the writer's name published.
2. Some information may also be used and disclosed in Marysville BookNest's promotions and projects. Personal information collected will not otherwise be disclosed unless permitted or required by law.
3. Marysville BookNest may store information on third party storage services operated by Google and Wix. Google's privacy policy is available at <https://policies.google.com/privacy?hl=en-US> , Wix's privacy policy is available at <https://www.wix.com/about/privacy>.
4. Requests for access to and amendment or removal of personal information should be made to the Marysville BookNest (see <https://www.marysvillebooknest.com/contact>).

Release and Indemnity

To the extent permitted by law, all entrants release from and indemnify the Marysville BookNest against all liability, cost, loss or expense arising out of acceptance of any prize(s) or participation in the competition including (but not limited to) loss of income, loss of opportunity, personal injury and damage to property, whether direct or consequential, foreseeable, due to some negligent act or omission or otherwise.

Intellectual Property

1. Entrants retain the intellectual property rights of all material submitted. However, the Marysville BookNest reserves the right to retain, display in exhibitions, publish, catalogue, sell copies and publish thumbnails of all entries in print, or on the Marysville BookNest website and other internet platforms.
2. By entering the competition, entrants authorise and confirm that permission has been obtained from authorised persons (including but not limited to copyright, trademark, patent and/or design owners and individuals depicted in any photographs or images) to publish the entries on the Marysville BookNest website, or use the material in marketing, in print and/or electronically.
3. By entering the competition, entrants indemnify the Marysville BookNest against all and any actions, claims or damages, arising from unauthorised use of the photographs (including but not limited to infringement of intellectual property rights) that may be taken by authorised persons.
4. Prize winner(s) may be asked to participate promotional activities relating to the competition, including but not limited to being interviewed and photographed. The prize winner(s) agree to grant Marysville BookNest a perpetual and non-exclusive licence to use such footage and photographs in all media worldwide.
5. Publication is at the discretion of the Marysville BookNest and entry that includes strong or inappropriate language or adult themes may not be published. Published works may be subject to editing to meet publication standards.
